

PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW

Lecturer

dr. REPAS MARTINA

Prerequisites

Not applicable.

Content (Syllabus outline)

Basic characteristics of private international law (PIL). Regulating PIL relations: conflict of laws provisions and other international and national legal rules. The role of basic institutes of PIL.

Individual statutes of PIL: under EC law, under international law, under comparative law.

International jurisdiction and special features of the private international law procedure. Recognition and enforcement of (foreign) judgements.

Textbooks

Michael Bogdan, Concise Introduction to EU Private International Law, Europa Law Publishing, 2016.