Call for papers

Organised by the Department of Law at the University of Zagreb, Faculty of Economics and Business, the first Zagreb International Conference on the Law of Obligations will be held in Zagreb on the 12th and 13th of December 2019. The conference welcomes proposals from scholars and practitioners in the field of the law of obligations. Proposals should be submitted with an abstract not exceeding 500 words and an indication of the conference topic, using the form available on the conference website, or by sending an e-mail to lawofobligations@net.efzg.hr no later than October 1, 2019.

Proposals should be in English or in Croatian and related to one of the topics of the conference. Authors may submit several proposals relating to different topics of the conference, but up to two proposals of the same author will be accepted for presentation in the conference, provided they relate to two different topics of the conference. Timely submitted proposals will be considered by the International Programme Committee which will choose the papers to be presented in the conference according to the criteria of excellence and originality of the research and the success in addressing the central topics of the conference. The final decision on the acceptance of the proposals will be communicated to the authors by the 31st of October 2019. Authors whose proposals would be accepted for the presentation in the conference are expected to submit full papers no later than by the 15th of February 2020. The submitted papers will be double-blind peer-reviewed, and the selected papers will be published in the second half of 2020 in one of the several edited books anticipated as the outcome of the conference.

There is no registration fee for conference speakers, but the conference speakers are responsible for their own accommodation and travel arrangements.

Topics of the conference

Proposals of papers to be presented in the conference should be related to one of the following topics of the conference.

- 1. Croatian Law of Obligations in Comparative Law Context
- 2. New Codifications of the Law of Obligations in Central and Southeast Europe
- 3. The National Law of Obligations under the Influence of the EU Law
- 4. The Contemporary Challenges to the Law of Obligations
- 5. Towards the 40 years of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods: the CISG's Autonomy and the National Sales Laws

The detailed description of the conference topics is available on the conference website: <https://lawofobligations.net.efzg.hr/>.
